Hello everyone

We would like to tell you about an Anti Bullying Poster competition for children and young people which is being funded by the Oxfordshire Safeguarding Children's Board. This year we are celebrating the fact that we are all different and proud to be that way. We challenge you to design a poster to celebrate difference and say NO to bullying.

Prizes

There is a 1st and 2nd prize for two age groups - age 3 - 11 and age 12 - 18
1st prize. Ipod Shuffle or High Street Gift Voucher value £30 and £100 for your school, youth centre, children's centre or group to spend on Anti-Bullying work!
2nd prize. £20 High Street Gift Voucher and £50 for your school, youth centre, children's centre or group to spend on Anti-Bullying work!
Winning entries will be used to promote anti-bullying next year.

Tell everyone about the competition!

The deadline is Friday 28th November 2008. The judging is happening on Friday 5th December. The judges are adults and children and young people from the Anti-Bullying Week organizing group and Safeguarding Board. We will write to you at your school/group if you are a winner. Check out www.bigvoiceoxfordshire.com and www.spired.com for winning entries

Rules

Do it by yourself - A4 size
Express your individuality - don't limit yourself
Age 3 to 18 years
Any style - drawing or using a computer - come up with a slogan if you want
Make it colourful, bright and eye catching

Entries clearly labelled on reverse with full name, age and name of school/group to:

Jo Brown, Anti-Bullying Co-ordinator
Oxfordshire County Council, Macclesfield House,
New Road, Oxford. OX1 1NA
Any questions contact jo.brown@oxfordshire.gov.uk

Closing Date: Friday 28th November 2008

Good luck everyone!

*Remember you don't have to win, you just have to have fun and get your message across. With best wishes from Farhan, Samy, Shelton and Verity
